Hello from the Founder - Maanasi Arora

Meet Maanasi Arora, the founder of House of Gulmarg, who began this jewelry brand with a simple yet powerful intention — to inspire confidence, joy, and self-worth in every woman.

Just as Gulmarg is known as heaven on earth, one in a several places — "I believe every woman deserves to feel the same: uniquely beautiful, one in many"

Know More About Me

HOUSE OF GULMARG

House of Gulmarg was born from a journey of self-belief and transformation. What began as a moment of helplessness turned into a mission to empower women to feel beautiful, confident, and celebrated, no matter where they are in life. Every piece of jewelry we create carries that emotion, a story of resilience, tradition, and joy, handcrafted for the woman who chooses to shine in her own way.
